Mr. Keller:

Mr. Ryerson of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce promised to send an additional letter to you giving further details concerning your talk before the Chamber on April 23rd. I have not yet seen this letter, but he mentioned that they anticipated a group of about 600 people for the luncheon you will address in the Mayflower Ballroom. The luncheon is scheduled for 12:45 P.M. and there will be a short reception beforehand beginning at 11:30 for you and the others who will be seated at the head table.

Mr. Lewis Cassens, editor of the Christian Science Monitor, will preside over the luncheon and there will be four or five minute talks given on Chamber matters by the presidents of the Canadian and American Chambers, respectively. They will be expecting you to talk for 20 or 25 minutes and would like to be advised of the title of your address as soon as possible. They have also requested, if possible, that you furnish them with a final copy of your address on Friday, April 25, before the luncheon on the 28th.
